MAY FLOWER PRIZE CONTEST.

President Roosevelt, in commenting on the Mayflower prize contest, recently, said to the writer, speaking with great earnestness: "I want to do everything I can for the enlisted men in the army or navy who rises above his fellows. The gun-pointers has got to be born with a natural capacity for that sort of thing. Training won't give him this gift, but if he has it, and then has the training, he becomes a winner. It is so with the sportsman in the field. One man meets success as a hunter while another fails. Even a fisherman has the special gift of knowing how best to get a good string. This gift the American people have in rare degree, in many respects, and I want to see it cultivated all the while." It is in the same spirit and with a like end in view that the president has promised to do all in his power to make a success of the International Olympic games of 1904, to which he will send bodies of soldiers and sailors to take part in shooting contests open to similar representatives of all other nations.—Leslie's Weekly.

SMUGGLING CHINESE.

Eight adult Chinamen and a boy have been arrested by a Buffalo police inspector on a train at Dunkirk. A naphtha launch and two young men who have been before the federal authorities before on account of "running in" Chinamen, were involved. The launch the young men and the Chinamen had departed from Crystal Beach on the Canadian side in a howling gale and the Chinamen were landed on the American shore. The inspector was notified of the leaving of the party by a man in his employ, and he caught them at Dunkirk.

FISHING FOR RATS.

The Paris police found a man fishing for rats at the corner of the Rue des Mathurins not long ago. The line, on which was a hook baited with meat, was dropped through a sewer grating. An enormous crowd had gathered and saw the man catch 14 rats in 25 minutes. The angler was taken to the police station, where he explained that the two baskets of rats were intended for a rat-killing contest between dogs.
